DERBYSHIRE COUNTY CRICKET CLUB SPECTATOR CODE OF CONDUCT
Updated: 13 October 2026

To assist our staff and stewards, and to help protect you and your fellow spectators, you are required to follow the below guidelines when visiting our home venues. These measures meet the requirements of current legislation, guidance from the ECB and Safety at Sports Grounds (SGSA) regulations.

SPECTATOR CODE OF CONDUCT

- Spectators are expected to show respect towards players, coaches, umpires and officials at all times, regardless of the outcome of the match.
- We are committed to providing a welcoming, inclusive and respectful environment for all spectators, players, staff and officials. We have a zero-tolerance policy on discrimination of any kind. Discrimination, harassment or abuse of any nature will not be tolerated and will result in ejection from the ground. This includes the 9 protected characteristics which are: Age, Disability, Gender Reassignment, Marriage and Civil Partnership, Pregnancy and Maternity, Race, Religion or Belief, Sex and Sexual Orientation.
- Any behaviour that may cause distress, alarm or harm to others is strictly prohibited.
- Verbal or physical abuse, harassment or intimidation towards any individual will not be tolerated under any circumstances.
- Spectators must not interfere with the progress of play. This includes entering the field of play or throwing any objects onto it.
- Any behaviour influenced by alcohol that negatively impacts the safety, comfort or enjoyment of others will not be tolerated.

We expect all spectators to play their part in creating a positive matchday environment where everyone feels safe, valued and able to enjoy the game. If you witness behavior that breaches this code, please report it to a steward or member of staff.

Failure to comply with these codes impacts on the safety of everyone and will result in the Club taking action at the time, and after the game. This will include:

- Verbal warning and or written warning
- Ejection from the venue
- Ground ban
- Cancellation of Membership without compensation
